Isa Viswa Prajnana Trust

The Isa Viswa Prajnana Trust is a registered charitable organization based in Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala. It is a registered publisher of books on education, science and spirituality.

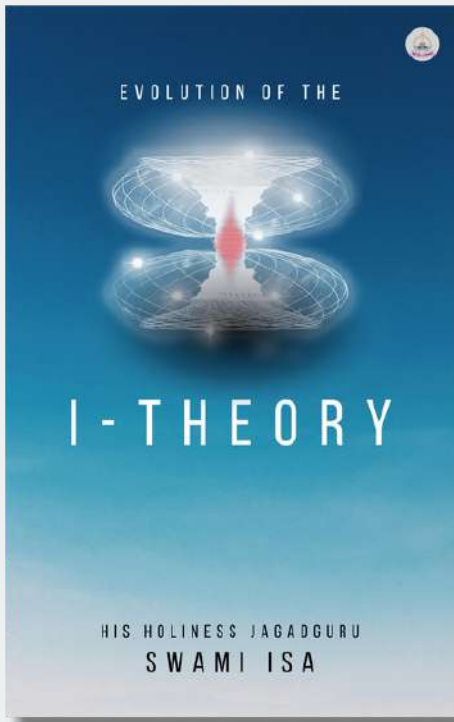

The Trust's vision is a world where every human being is capable of achieving total consciousness—in other words, total happiness. The Isa Viswa Prajnana Trust was founded in 2000 by His Holiness Jagadguru Swami Isa, who is well known for his educational system of Education for Total Consciousness.

The Trust provides aid and comfort to the suffering, and at the same time, aims to resolve the source of suffering—human knowledge.

Besides publishing books, IVPT runs a pilot school on the Education for Total Consciousness method, founded in 1998. It provides healthcare and skill development in slums, promotes environmental programs and tree planting, conducts research in renewable energy, organizes the Global Energy Parliament, and many other projects.

Since 2015, the Trust has held Special Consultative Status to the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC).
